If the court finds these facts and is of the opinion that there will be no further need for such drugs, it shall enter an order accordingly. The clerk shall then deliver the drugs and take from the law enforcement agent a receipt which shall be filed in the cause. The clerk shall also file any certificate issued by an authorized federal or state agency and received by a representative thereof showing the nature of such drugs.

XI. GENERAL PROVISIONS (RULES 81-86)

PART IV. MANDATORY ARBITRATION RULES (SCLMAR)

1. SCOPE AND PURPOSE OF RULES

RULE 1.1 APPLICATION OF RULES-PURPOSE AND DEFINITION

(a) Purpose. The purpose of mandatory arbitration of civil actions under RCW 7.06, as implemented by the Mandatory Arbitration Rules (MAR), is to provide a simplified and economical procedure for obtaining the prompt and equitable resolution of disputes involving claims of fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or less, exclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs, and claims in which the sole relief sought is the establishment, modification, or termination of maintenance or child support payments regardless of the number or amount of such payments. Mandatory Arbitration Rules (MAR) as supplemented by these Local Mandatory Arbitration Rules (SCLMAR) are not designed to address every question that may arise during the arbitration process, and the rules give considerable discretion to the arbitrator. The arbitrator should not hesitate to exercise that discretion. Arbitration hearings should be informal and expeditious, consistent with the purpose of relevant statutes and rules.

[Amended effective September 1, 2007]

(b) "Director" Defined. In these rules, "Director" means the Director of Arbitration for the Snohomish County Superior Court. The appointment of the Director and other administrative matters are addressed in SCLMAR 8.6.

RULE 1.2 MATTERS SUBJECT TO ARBITRATION

Pursuant to the authority granted by statute, a claim is subject to mandatory arbitration only if it does not exceed fifty thousand dollars ($50,000), exclusive of attorney fees, interest and costs; or if it involves solely the establishment, modification, or termination of child support or maintenance payments or arrearages, regardless of the number or amount of such payments; or if it is a small claims matter appealed from District Court.

[Amended effective September 1, 2006]

2. TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION AND ASSIGNMENT OF ARBITRATOR

RULE 2.1 TRANSFER TO ARBITRATION

(a) Time of Transfer. A matter is deemed transferred to Arbitration upon filing of the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability.

(b) Note for Trial Setting and Initial Statement of Arbitrability. In every civil case the party filing a notice for trial provided by CR 40(a)(1) and SCLCR 40(b) shall serve the Director and all parties and file with the clerk a Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability on the form prescribed by the court.

(c) Response to an Initial Statement of Arbitrability. Within fourteen (14) days after the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability has been served and filed, any party disagreeing with the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability shall serve the Director and all parties and file with the clerk a Response to the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability on a form prescribed by the court. In the absence of such response, the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability shall be deemed correct and a non-responding party shall be deemed to have stipulated to arbitration if the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability provides that the case is arbitrable. If a party asserts that a claim exceeds fifty thousand dollars ($50,000) or seeks relief other than a money judgment (except for the establishment, modification or termination of child support or maintenance payments regardless of the number or amount of such payments), the case is not subject to arbitration except by stipulation. If a party incorrectly asserts in the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability that a case is not arbitrable, the court may at any time prior to trial on its own motion transfer such case to mandatory arbitration and strike any scheduled trial date.

[Amended effective September 1, 2007]

(d) Failure to File Amendments. A party failing to serve and file an original Response within the time prescribed may later do so only upon leave of court. A party may amend the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability or Response at any time before assignment of an arbitrator or assignment of a trial date, and thereafter only upon leave of court for good cause shown. The parties may amend a Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability or Response from non-arbitrable to arbitrable at any time prior to trial by written stipulation served on the Director and filed with the clerk.

(e) By Stipulation. A case in which all parties file a stipulation to arbitrate under MAR 8.1(b) will be placed on the arbitration calendar regardless of the nature of the case or amount in controversy.

(f) Jury Demand. Where any party indicates, pursuant to this rule, that the case is arbitrable or stipulates to arbitration, that party may simultaneously demand a jury trial in the form and manner set forth in these local rules. The case shall then be assigned a position on the jury trial calendar as provided in section (g) of this rule. The jury demand must be made and the jury fee paid not later than the time at which the initial statement of arbitrability is filed which indicates the matter is arbitrable or by a party responding to the initial statement when the response to the statement is filed, otherwise the right to trial by jury is waived unless, after the arbitration decision, a jury demand is filed at the time in the manner set forth in SCLMAR 7.1(b)(2)(ii).

(g) Trial Calendar. A non-jury case that is assigned to arbitration shall not be assigned a position on the trial calendar except as provided in SCLMAR 7.1. A jury case that is assigned to arbitration shall simultaneously be assigned a position on the jury trial calendar.

[Amended effective October 1, 1993]

RULE 2.2 COURT MAY DETERMINE ARBITRABILITY

(a) Motions; How Made. Motions to establish whether a case is actually subject to arbitration shall be governed by the state and local rules pertaining to civil motions practice. Such motions shall be noted for hearing on a date not more than twenty-one (21) days from the date the response is filed and served if the Note for Trial and Initial Statement of Arbitrability provides that the case is arbitrable. A party failing to timely note such cases for motion shall be deemed to have stipulated to arbitration unless otherwise ordered by the court for good cause shown. Such stipulations to arbitration under this rule shall be established by ex parte court order and shall be filed with the clerk and shall be served upon all parties and the Director.

(b) Determination of Non-arbitrability. If upon motion the court determines that a case is not arbitrable, all parties shall report to the trial calendar coordinator in court administration to obtain a trial date.

(c) Determination of Arbitrability. If upon motion the court determines that a case is arbitrable, the prevailing party shall serve upon the Director an order transferring the case to arbitration and if a non-jury trial date has been set, it shall be stricken by the Director subject to being renoted pursuant to SCLMAR 7.1.

[Amended October 1, 1990; Amended October 1, 1997; Amended September 1, 2012]

RULE 2.3 ASSIGNMENT OF ARBITRATOR

(a) Generally; Stipulations. When a case is set for arbitration, a list of five (5) proposed arbitrators will be furnished to the parties. Except to determine the proposed arbitrator's availability, the parties shall not contact the arbitrator regarding the matter being arbitrated. A master list of arbitrators will be made available on request. The parties are encouraged to stipulate to an arbitrator. In the absence of a stipulation, the arbitrator will be chosen from among the five (5) proposed arbitrators in the manner defined by this rule.

(b) Response by Parties. Each party may, within fourteen (14) days after a list of proposed arbitrators is furnished to the parties, nominate one (1) or two (2) arbitrators and strike two (2) arbitrators from the list. If both parties respond, an arbitrator nominated by both parties will be appointed. If no arbitrator has been nominated by both parties, the Director will appoint an arbitrator from among those not stricken by either party.

(c) Response by Only One (1) Party. If only one (1) party responds within fourteen (14) days, the Director will appoint an arbitrator nominated by that party.

(d) No Response. If neither party responds within fourteen (14) days, the Director will appoint one (1) of the five (5) proposed arbitrators.

(e) Additional Arbitrators for Additional Parties. If there are more than two (2) adverse parties, such parties may request the Director to include additional proposed arbitrators on the list, with the above principles of selection to be applied. The number of adverse parties and additional proposed arbitrators shall be determined by the Director, subject to review by the Presiding Judge.

[Amended effective October 1, 1993]

3. ARBITRATORS

RULE 3.1 QUALIFICATIONS

(a) Minimum Qualifications. An arbitrator must be a member of the Washington State Bar Association who has been admitted to the Bar for a minimum of five (5) years, or who is a retired Superior Court Judge or Commissioner. By stipulation the parties to a case may agree to an arbitrator not on the Snohomish County Arbitration Panel if the arbitrator so chosen is a duly qualified member of an arbitration panel established under Local Mandatory Arbitration Rules of another county in the State of Washington. The parties may stipulate to a non-lawyer arbitrator upon approval of the Director.

[Amended emergency effective December 8, 2010; amended September 1, 2011]

1. Determine the time, place and procedure to present a motion before the arbitrator;

2. Require a party or attorney representing such party, or both, to pay the reasonable expenses, including attorney's fees, caused by the failure of such party or attorney, or both, to obey an order of the arbitrator, unless the arbitrator finds that the failure was substantially justified or that other circumstances make an award of expenses unjust. The arbitrator shall make a special award for such expenses and shall file such award with the clerk, with proof of service of party(s). The aggrieved party shall have ten (10) days thereafter to appeal the award of such expenses in accordance with the procedures described in RCW 2.24.050. If within ten (10) days after the award is filed no party appeals, a judgment shall be entered in a manner described generally under MAR 6.3; and

The arbitrator shall consider the nature and complexity of the case, the amount in controversy, values at stake, the discovery that has already occurred, the burdens on the party from whom discovery is sought, and the possibility of unfair surprise which may result if discovery is restricted. Authorized discovery shall be conducted in accordance with the Civil Rules except that motions concerning discovery shall be determined by the arbitrator.

(b) Court's Automatic Temporary Order Upon Filing of Certain Family Law Cases.

(1) Application. This rule shall apply to the following types of cases filed after May 1, 2010:

- A. All family law petitions seeking dissolution of marriage, legal separation, parentage, or declaration of invalidity; and
- B. Actions brought by parties to committed intimate relationships or state registered domestic partnerships, involving parenting or distribution of assets/liabilities.

(2) Court's Automatic Temporary Order In Dissolution, Legal Separation, Invalidity, Committed Intimate Relationship, or State Registered Domestic Partnership Actions.

Upon the filing of a Summons and Petition in any dissolution, legal separation, invalidity, committed intimate relationship, or state registered domestic partnership action, the court on its own motion shall automatically issue a Temporary Order that includes the following provisions:

- A. The parties shall be restrained from transferring, removing, encumbering, concealing, damaging, or in any way disposing of any property except in the usual course of business or for the necessities of life or as agreed in writing by the parties. Each party shall notify the other party of any extraordinary expenditure made after the order is issued.
- B. The parties shall be restrained from assigning, transferring, borrowing, lapsing, surrendering, or changing entitlement of any insurance policies of either or both parties, or of any dependent children whether medical, health, life, or auto insurance, except as agreed in writing by the parties.
- C. Each party shall be immediately responsible for his or her own future debts whether incurred by credit card, loan, security interest, or mortgage, except as agreed in writing by the parties.
- D. Both parties shall have access to all tax, financial, legal, and household records. Reasonable access to records shall not be denied. This provision does not apply to documents protected by the attorney-client or attorney work product privilege.

(3) Court's Automatic Temporary Order In Actions Involving Minor Child(ren). Upon the filing of a Summons and Petition in any action specified in Sections (b)(1)(A) or (b)(1)(b) that involves minor children, the court on its own motion shall automatically issue a Temporary Order that includes the following provisions:

- B. Each parent shall be restrained from changing the residence of the child(ren) until further court order, except as agreed in writing by the parties. Subsequent orders regarding parenting issues supersede previously issued orders to the extent that the orders may be inconsistent.
- C. Each parent shall have full access to the child(ren)'s educational and medical records, unless otherwise limited by court order.
- D. Each parent shall ensure that the child(ren) not be exposed to negative comments about the other parent. Neither parent shall make negative comments about the other parent in the presence of the child(ren).

(4) Service of Automatic Temporary Order. It is the responsibility of the Petitioner to serve a copy of the Automatic Temporary Order on the Respondent.

(c) Family Law Proceedings-Courtroom Calendars and Procedures.

(1) Trial Date in Family Law Cases. In all family law cases, unless a trial date was previously set, the Court will set a trial date on its own motion so long as proper service of the petition was made and one-hundred and fifty (150) days have passed after the filing of the case.

If a trial date is not confirmed in a family law case and that case has not had final documents presented within thirty (30) days after the unconfirmed trial date, the case will be scheduled for a status conference. The status conference will be heard on a status conference calendar to be held at least monthly and heard by a Judge designated by the Presiding Judge. If final documents have been filed in the case before the status conference is held, the status conference may be stricken. At the status conference, the Court will set a trial date on its own motion, and the trial date will be court confirmed, unless good cause is shown to do otherwise. If the parties fail to appear at the status conference, the court may dismiss the case on its own motion.

A. Trial Continuances in Family Law Cases. In all family law cases, a motion or stipulation for trial continuance shall list the date(s) upon which trial was previously set.

B. Dismissal for Unattended Trials in Family Law Cases. In all family law cases, the Court on its own motion may dismiss any case which was properly confirmed by the parties or court confirmed, but the parties failed to appear on the date of trial, unless a motion for continuance has been previously granted. This provision applies to all cases filed on or after January 1, 2010.

[Amended September 1, 2012]

All pages, including attached declarations and affidavits shall be sequentially numbered. Working copies of previously filed documents/orders are excluded from page limitation.

D. Financial Declarations. Financial declarations and financial documents do not count toward the page limit.

E. Expert Reports and Evaluations. Declarations, affidavits, and reports from Family Court Investigation, guardians ad litem, police reports, substance abuse evaluations, psychological evaluations and other expert witnesses do not count toward the page limitation.

F. Sanctions. Failure to comply with this rule may result in sanctions that may include, but are not limited to, striking over limit pleadings.

(3) Paternity actions brought by the prosecutor shall be heard as set forth in an administrative order of the court.

(4) Return on Show Cause actions in Domestic Violence cases shall be heard as set forth in an administrative order of the court.

(1) Information Required. In child custody, visitation or parenting plan cases, each party shall timely submit all information, forms, and worksheets required by statute. Any such forms or worksheets that are not complete may be stricken or other sanctions imposed.

(2) Evaluations. The court may order a custody or parenting or residential evaluation, mental health evaluation, alcohol or drug evaluation, mediation, treatment, counseling investigation and/or physical examination. The issue of costs shall be addressed in the order requiring such evaluation, and shall contain an hourly rate and maximum payment if the cost is to be at public expense. Any order failing to comply will be void.

(3) Reference to Family Court; Counseling.

(A) Duties of Parties. It shall be the responsibility of the parties or their counsel to utilize and complete such form as required by the court for reference to Family Court for investigation or other services. The completed and signed order shall be immediately submitted to the Family Court. Such services will not be required or undertaken until such form has been properly and timely submitted.

(B) The completed Family Court report shall be filed with the Court clerk. The attorneys for the parties, or party pro se shall receive one copy of such report.

(4) Child Advocate.

(A) Appointment. Upon motion the court may appoint a guardian ad litem or special advocate. The order shall be on a form as approved by the court and shall designate the appointee, the duties, and make provisions for payment of fees.

(B) Notice. The guardian ad litem or child advocate shall receive notice and copies of all discovery and hearings.

(C) Discharge. The guardian ad litem or child advocate shall be discharged only by order of the court.

(5) Parenting Seminars.

(A) Definition of Applicable Cases. This rule applies to all cases filed under Ch. 26.09, 26.10 or Ch. 26.26 of the RCW filed after September 1, 1994, including dissolutions, legal separations, major modifications and paternity actions (in which paternity has been established) where the parties are parents of children under the age of 18, and where a parenting plan or residential plan is required which involves more than purely financial issues.

(B) Parenting Seminars; Mandatory Attendance. In all cases referred to in Section (A) above, and in those additional cases arising under Title 26 RCW where a court makes a discretionary finding that a parenting seminar would be in the best interest of the children, both parents, and such non-parent parties as the court may direct, shall participate in, and successfully complete, an approved parenting seminar within 60 days after service of a petition, or an initiating motion, on the responding party. Standards for an approved parenting seminar shall be established by Administrative Order of this court. Successful completion shall be evidenced by a certificate of attendance filed by the provider agency with the court.

(C) Special Considerations/Waiver.

(1) In no case shall opposing parties be required to attend a seminar together.

(2) Upon a showing of domestic violence or abuse which would not require mutual decision-making pursuant to RCW 26.09.191, or that a parent's attendance at a seminar is not in the children's best interest, the court shall either:

[a] waive the requirement of completion of the seminar; or

[b] provide an alternative voluntary parenting seminar for battered spouses.

(3) The court may waive the seminar requirement for one or both parents in any case for good cause shown.

D) Failure to Comply. Delay, refusal or default by one parent does not excuse timely compliance by the other parent. However, a parent who fails to complete the parenting seminar, shall be precluded from confirming the case for trial or presenting any final order affecting the parenting/residential plan, and may be precluded from seeking affirmative relief in this or subsequent proceedings in this file, until the parenting seminar has been successfully completed. Refusal or delay by either parent may constitute contempt of court and result in sanctions imposed by the court, or may result in the imposition of monetary terms, default and/or striking of pleadings.

(6) Judicial Information System background checks. Prior to presenting a permanent parenting plan to the court for entry, the party or parties presenting the final parenting plan shall submit a completed judicial information service (JIS) background check form to Snohomish County Superior Court Family Court Services. Upon receipt of a completed JIS background check form, Superior Court staff shall complete a search of the Judicial Information System for the existence of any information and proceedings relevant to the placement of the child.

This search shall be performed no more than 14 days prior to the proposed date of presentation of the permanent parenting plan.

Each party shall attach to this Financial Affidavit copies of sufficient W-2 forms, 1040 forms and copies of wage stubs for prior periods to adequately prove income.

All orders establishing, setting or modifying any temporary or permanent child support obligation must be in the form of a separate order, on mandatory forms where appropriate, with the adopted child support worksheet attached.

(f) Restraining Orders.

(1) Where Presented. Applications for Temporary Restraining Orders may be presented ex parte. Motions for relief to be effective during the pendency of litigation shall be noted for hearing on a commissioner's calendar. Agreed restraining orders may be presented ex parte.

(2) Notice to Opponent. If an appearance has been made by a party, notice to the party pro se or counsel must be given prior to application for any immediate temporary restraining order which will be heard by a commissioner ex parte.

(3) Mutual Orders. All immediate temporary restraining orders shall be made mutual where appropriate.

(4) Motions to Quash or Terminate Temporary Restraining Orders. A motion to quash a temporary restraining order or to terminate a restraining order shall be noted for hearing on a commissioner's calendar.

(5) Temporary Restraining Orders; Testimony. No temporary order removing a person from or restraining a person from entering premises in which that person then resides, or has resided within fourteen (14) days of the application; or which affects the custody of a minor child in which another person has parental rights; or which grants to a person possession of property in the name or possession of another; shall be issued except: (a) after a hearing of which the adverse party has been given prior notice deemed adequate by the court hearing the same; or (b) at which sworn testimony or statement is received from a person or persons having personal knowledge of the facts, and the court waives the notice requirement. In general, an ex parte order establishing, vacating or changing child custody or residence may only be entered under one or more of the following circumstances:

A. There is already an existing order entered in a different cause or proceeding, and this order is merely to confirm the status quo in this proceeding;

B. The parties have been separated more than fourteen (14) days, and the moving party has had the actual uninterrupted custody of the children for the last fourteen (14) days, or the other party has voluntarily vacated the family residence more than fourteen (14) days hence;

C. Less than fourteen (14) days have elapsed since separation of the parties, but during this time, the responding party has voluntarily acceded to the present arrangement by removing himself/herself from the family residence, or by leaving the children behind in the physical custody of the moving party; or

D. The parties have not as yet separated or have only recently done so, and there are substantial, documented allegations of physical, emotional, or sexual abuse of the other party or of the children which present a substantial danger of immediate irreparable harm such that an emergency order without notice ought to be entered. The applicant for such an order is expected to appear personally before a commissioner and give testimony in support of the request.

(6) Show Cause Hearings; Testimony. All show cause hearings, except for contempt, domestic violence, and anti-harassment hearings, shall be by affidavit and declaration only. In anti-harassment and domestic violence actions only the parties may testify without cross examination, or make statements as allowed by the court. The court may take testimony if it appears to the court necessary for an adequate determination of the matter.

(7) Agreed or Non-contested Orders and Decrees. In any case in which the respondent has appeared, pro se or through counsel, prior to the entry of an order of default, all orders, findings, or decrees shall be endorsed by the non-presenting party or his/her attorney and shall indicate approval or waiver of notice of presentation.

(g) Modification Proceedings.

(1) Modification of Temporary Orders. Temporary orders may be modified by motion based upon a change of circumstances.

(2) Entry of Modified Decree by Default. No permanent decree of modification of support, maintenance, visitation, parenting plan, or custody shall be entered by default unless the adverse party was served with at least twenty (20) days notice of such proceedings (sixty (60) days if out of state), together with copies of pleadings.

(3) Custody, Parenting, or Visitation Modifications.

(A) Commencement. A proceeding to modify custody, a parenting plan, visitation or support is commenced by the filing of such documents as is required by various statutes.

(B) Threshold Hearings-Temporary Relief. Any party may, by motion or show cause order, request temporary relief or a threshold hearing based on affidavits. Responsive documents shall be served on the moving party as required by SCLCR 7.

(C) Disposition. Contested matters involving modification of support or maintenance only will be set for arbitration, unless a trial by affidavit is approved by the court upon motion.

(h) Alternative Dispute Resolution Required In Family Law.

(1) Alternative dispute resolution required in family law. All contested issues in the following cases shall be submitted to settlement conference, mediation, or other ADR process with a neutral third party who offers ADR services: petitions filed under RCW 26.09; 26.10; 26.26 and committed intimate relationship cases and petitions for modifications of final orders exclusive of Child Support/Maintenance Modification actions which are in mandatory arbitration. If a guardian ad litem (GAL) has been appointed, the parties shall provide the GAL with the date of ADR at least ten (10) days prior to its scheduled occurrence.

(2) When alternative dispute resolution is not required. ADR shall NOT be required in the following cases:

- A. For good cause shown upon motion and approval by the court.
- B. Where a domestic violence restraining order or protection order (excluding Ex-Parte orders) involving the parties has been entered by a court at any time within the previous twelve (12) months.
- C. Where a domestic violence no contact order exists pursuant to RCW 10.99;
- D. Where the court upon motion finds that domestic abuse has occurred between the parties and that such abuse would interfere with arm's-length mediation.

(3) Alternative dispute resolution timing. In all matters filed after May 1, 2010, in which ADR is required, the parties must complete ADR prior to trial confirmation, provided however that either party may by motion request an order requiring mediation sooner upon good cause shown.

(4) Failure to comply. Failure to comply with Alternative Dispute Resolution when required shall result in the case not being confirmed for trial. Refusal or delay by either party may constitute contempt of court and result in sanctions imposed by the court, including the imposition of monetary terms.

(5) Division of costs. The parties shall be equally responsible for the cost of ADR unless a different division of the cost is ordered by the court or agreed upon by the parties.

(6) Where to bring motions. Motions to waive ADR shall be noted before the Presiding Judge at 9:00 a.m. Motions to alter the ADR time period or change the division of the cost shall be noted on the Commissioner's Family Law Calendar.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, either party may by motion seek a court order requiring mandatory mediation in a case where it would not be required as set forth in (2)(B), (2)(C) or (2)(D) above if the moving party believes that the parties would be able to mediate their dispute fairly under the particular circumstances of the case.
